

Revision Information for French

The French GCSE consists of listening, reading and writing papers plus a Speaking Endorsement for 2021.

The following websites and resources are designed to help you revise key topics and themes, as well as completing past papers to improve exam skills.

The mock exams for listening, reading and writing will be in the Mock exam weeks in November.

The GCSE listening, reading and writing exams are yet to be confirmed.

Revision websites:

www.memrise.co.uk (useful for learning/revising vocabulary).

www.cram.com (useful for flashcard revision)

www.linguascope.com (use the INTERMEDIATE section for vocabulary activities).

www.lyricstraining.com (Search for French songs and fill in the gaps as you listen).

www.kerboodle.com (Here you are able to access listening and reading activities, as well as practise general vocabulary. See your teacher if you have forgotten your login details).

www.pearsonactivelearn.com (user name: your Google email address, password: your usual school password with a capital letter)

There are also full past papers, along with the listening files and mark schemes on the AQA website.

We have also produced writing and reading booklets all shared with pupils on Google Classroom. These provide extra exam-style practice for each topic.

Finally, pupils are aware that they have the opportunity to attend revision sessions for French after school with their French teacher. These sessions offer extra practice for all elements of the exam.
